

EXAM CERTIFICATES

Exam Certificates are important legal documents that prove your qualifications. You may be requested to show your certificates to future educational establishments and employers and it is therefore important that you keep them safe.

It is important that you use one of the following options to collect/ receive your certificates.

By Collection: Please visit the school Reception between 8.00am and 4.00pm during term time. If you are unable to come yourself you may ask a friend/family member to collect certificates on your behalf. Your representative must bring a letter of authorisation from you and personal ID. Certificates will not be released without this evidence. The Exam certificates are available from December 1st onwards for the prior Summer Series of Examinations.

By post: Certificates can be posted to you at a secure address but will need to be 'signed for'. A payment of £4 to cover the cost of this Royal Mail service must be received before certificates will be sent out. You should make cheques payable to 'The Archbishop's School' and enclose details of the address you require to be used.

Lost and Uncollected Certificates

Exam Boards only ever issue one copy of certificates, we do not have duplicates. We keep all uncollected certificates, so if you think you may not have collected your certificates at the time that they were issued please contact us. If you have lost your certificates please be aware that the Exam Boards have merged and are now known as AQA, CCEA, CIE, City and Guilds, Edexcel/Pearson, OCR and WJEC. You need to contact them directly. They will be able to see from their systems which qualifications you took, details of your results and they will be able to issue you certified copies of your certificates (at a cost). You will need to tell them the year you sat your qualifications, your name, date of birth, our centre name (The Archbishop's School) and centre number (61401).
